Kidd P. Crawford is a Shareholder in the Sacramento and San Luis Obispo offices and is a member of the Labor, Employment and Personnel, Students and Special Education and Business and Property Practice Groups. For over 20 years, he has represented public school districts and county offices of education throughout California, particularly those situated in the Central Valley. Kidd emphasizes practical, no-nonsense strategies designed to build, or repair, and maintain positive relationships with the surrounding community members, enabling his clients to avoid unnecessary and expensive lawsuits. At the same time, he has established a solid record of successfully advocating on behalf of his clients, whether in negotiations, at mediation, arbitration, or in administrative hearings and civil court.

Kidd previously operated as a solo practitioner for eight years representing only school districts and county offices of education located in the Central Valley. Prior to that, he was an in-house legal counsel for Fresno County Office of Education.
